

SEC. 64. That all laws and clauses of laws coming in conflict with this act be and the same are hereby repealed. Conflicting laws repealed.

SEC. 65. That this act shall be in force from and after its ratification.

Ratified the 11th day of March, A. D. 1889.

CHAPTER 242.

An act to amend the charter of the town of Taylorsville.

The General Assembly of North Carolina do enact :

SECTION 1. That section 1 of chapter 86, private laws of 1887, be amended as follows: After the word "cemetery," in line 18 of said section, insert, "thence east with the Statesville public road to a point opposite the northeast corner of the cemetery fence; thence crossing said road running southwest with the cemetery fence a straight line to the old Statesville road; thence west with said road back to the town boundary as designated in this section." Chapter 86, private laws 1887, amended. Corporate limits.

SEC. 2. That subsection 2, section 32, be amended by adding after the word "day," at the end of said subsection, the following: "And all able-bodied male citizens over 18 years and under 21 [45] years of age (not exempt by the board) shall work the streets three days in each year, or in lieu thereof shall pay to the town tax-collector fifty cents for each of said three days." Citizens required to work streets, &c.

SEC. 3. That subsection 8, section 39, is hereby repealed, and the following enacted in lieu thereof: "The board of town commissioners shall have full control of the sale of spirituous, vinous or malt liquors within the corporate limits of said town, whether there shall be a sale therein, and in what quantities, and if by retail or wholesale, the amount of license tax, and the conditions shall be specified in a written penal bond in the sum of not less than one thousand dollars, with such sureties as may be satisfactory to the board, payable to the town of Taylorsville, which may be put in suit to the use of any person or persons injured by such sale, either in person or property, directly or indirectly; and the town commissioners shall have power to revoke any license issued by them or close up any bar-room or place where liquor is sold at their option, a sufficient cause being shown, without refunding any part of the license tax; and no license from any other party or parties having authority to issue license shall be lawful in said corporation without the license of the town corporation; and said license tax shall not be less than three hundred dollars per annum: Provided, that no license shall be issued for a shorter time than six months." Sale of liquor.

SEC. 4. After subsection 5, under section 32, add subsection 6: "On all keepers of livery stables, a tax of not less than ten dollars; and License tax on livery-stable keepers, &c.